Resolution on item 2.b):

The following counter-proposal of shareholder Kapitalska družba, d.d., Ljubljana was passed.

After the capital increase defined in item 2.a, the share capital of the company, amounting to EUR 66,378,217.32 and divided into 15,906,876 ordinary, freely transferable registered no par value shares, shall be increased by a further amount of no more than EUR 7,832,064.76, to at maximum total of EUR 74,210,282.09. The newly issued / offered shares shall be classified in the sale class as the existing ones.

Increase in share capital in the amount of not more than EUR 7,832,064.76 shall be effected by issuing no more than 1,876,876 new ordinary freely transferable registered no par value shares. The shares, priced at EUR 13.32 per share, shall be offered in exchange for cash contributions.

Increase in share capital (secondary equity offering) shall be carried out in three rounds. In the first round, new shares shall be offered to all shareholders entered into the share register as at the day of announcement of the prospectus. These shareholders will have the right to subscribe the amount of shares proportional to their current shareholding in total share capital.

The shares not subscribed and paid up in the first round will be offered in the second round for subscription and payment to all shareholders entered into the share register as at the day of announcement of the prospectus. There shall be no special restrictions in subscription of shares.

If the number of bidders to subscribe and pay for new shares in the second round exceeds the number of shares left over from the first round, the bidders shall be offered to subscribe and pay for the number of shares defined in relation between the number of shares not subscribed and paid for in the first round and all subscribed and paid shares in the second round. Any excess payments for newly issued shares shall be returned to the bidders in 15 days after the subscription and payment for the new shares.

Any remaining shares that would still be available, i.e. not subscribed and paid for by the existing shareholders by the end of the second round, shall be offered by the issuer's Management Board, subject to approval by the Supervisory Board, for subscription and payment to third parties (third round).

Increase in share capital shall be deemed successful if at least 70 percent of newly issued and offered shares are subscribed and paid for within the deadlines defined in the prospectus and provided by the relevant legislation.

Existing shareholders and third parties will have the option to restrict their subscription in advance in all of three rounds of subscribing new shares, by a statement on the subscription form, where they can define their maximum share percentage or number of shares they may own in the company after the capital increase procedure based on this resolution.

Details on capital increase (secondary equity offering) in three rounds shall be defined by the Management Board, subject to approval by the Supervisory Board, and announced in detail in the prospectus.

Increase of share capital shall be carried out immediately after registration of IFC as a new shareholder at Klirinško depotna družba, resulting from the capital increase defined in sections 2.a). The subscribers are liable to pay the total price of each subscribed, or acquired, share.
